

complete femininity

the tantric approach to woman power

Agama is very fortunate to have Mihaiela Pentiu, a medical doctor who has walked and taught the tantric path for almost two decades, presenting these esoteric teachings in a coherent, step-by-step manner. Not only can participants in this women-only workshop expect to gain a solid theoretical understanding of the tantric outlook on femininity but also, and foremost, they will be able to discuss the relevant issues with an experienced woman.

Complete Femininity

This 5-day workshop is dedicated to the study of the tantric vision of female spiritual seekers in the 21st century. Together with blocks of theory, practical training for the individual will be presented in an eloquent and scientific manner.

practices within the Yoga tradition are shared for the couple both before and during pregnancy.

This workshop requires no prerequisites and printed supplemental materials are provided to participants. The counterpart of this workshop is Vira Training for men.

The syllabus for this course includes the following subjects: chakras and their correspondence with universal energies; the esoteric understanding of sexual energy and its sublimation and transmutation; Kundalini; the tantric understanding of femininity; the law of polarity and its application to human relationships; sexuality, and sensuality; the yogic outlook on menstruation and its sublimation; birth control in the tantric understanding; and the in-depth study of pregnancy and related issues, among others. For example, methods are presented to determine the sex of your child and preparatory
