

Invoking Angels

Commune with the angelic realms

AGAMA is a unique, international school of spirituality founded in 1998 around the esoteric Yoga teachings of Swami Vivekananda Saraswati in Rishikesh, India. Since 2002, AGAMA has been headquartered on Koh Phangan in Thailand. In recent years, thousands of students have joined our courses, benefiting from the enriching teachings of this school, and consequently branches are now open in India, Greece, Israel, and other countries.

We offer authentic, potent teachings from Indian and Tibetan Yoga, blended with chosen spiritual traditions from both East and West. The comprehensive teachings are university-level and cover all aspects of Yoga, from healing and self-development to the paranormal and the highest metaphysical goal: Enlightenment. Our purpose is to provide a clear, inspiring, profound, and multifaceted path for today's spiritual seekers, as well as support for their practice.

The Invoking Angels workshop is intended as an excellent introduction to this complex and beautiful spiritual realm, and can change your life, opening a whole new chapter of self-discovery for you. Join us!

Invoking Angels

Now offered for the first time by Agama, Invoking Angels follows many requests by students seeking to understand the structure of the subtle universe. We will approach this workshop not only from the Eastern standpoint of Hinduism and Buddhism, with their various planes of consciousness and classes of spirits and entities, but also from a Western view, illustrated by the traditions of Gnosticism, Kabbalah, and esoteric Christianity, with its aspect of Angelology.

This workshop will answer the questions: Who are the angels? Where do they come from? How many kinds of angels are there? How do they act within their and our realms? What can we know about them? How much is it possible for human beings to interact with angels and what are the techniques to do this?

Invoking Angels will provide the theoretical understanding of the different worlds of angels and also the infernal worlds, plus the laws governing both. It will analyse every type of angel hierarchy, describing the nine classes of angels and the methods to contact them, with a special emphasis on the Archangels and guardian angels. The methods given are clear and pragmatic, in the style of the Agama tradition.

This Workshop is only available for students from the second month and up, except with special approval.
