

Vira Workshop

The esoteric teachings are presented in a coherent, step-by-step approach by Swami Vivekananda Saraswati. He has walked and taught the tantric path for over 2 decades, therefore Agama is lucky to have him teach this men-only workshop. Not only can the participants expect to get a solid theoretical understanding of the tantric outlook on masculinity but also and foremost, they will be able to discuss the relevant issues with an experienced man.

Vira Workshop

This 5-day workshop is dedicated to the study of the tantric vision on male spiritual seekers in the 21st century. Together with blocks of theory, practical training for the individual will be presented in an eloquent and scientific manner.

In the tantric tradition 'Vira' is a term used to describe the model male typology for the Tantric practitioner. It refers to the perfect masculine, manly and heroic characteristics. According to the tradition, Vira characteristics are very difficult to develop in today's world, because the dominant typology is the inferior, or the 'pashu' typology. Hence this workshop is for those who are interested in developing the Vira characteristics necessary for the perfection of Tantric practice. It is reserved for men only, and this factor alone will amplify masculinity. Techniques will be given and practiced to develop the masculine energy especially from the stand point of the Tantric tradition. It contains theory, meditation, and practical exercises. The counterpart of this workshop is the Complete Femininity workshop.

This workshop requires no prerequisites and printed supplemental material will be provided to participants.
